Professor Michael Terry

New text from Curtis:
Dude, sup. How's it going with Liz?

New text from Mark:
Sup. Pretty good. She knows a ton about Python, so we're always sending Python jokes back and forth and stuff

New text from Curtis:
Niiiice. A match made in programming heaven

New text from Mark:
But she knows way more Python than me. It's almost intimidating

New text from Curtis:
Don’t let your stupid male ego get in the way of a good thing

New text from Mark:
Hold on, someone’s calling me

New text from Curtis:
k

A little bit later…

New text from Mark:
Dude, that was Tina. John broke up with her. She wants to get coffee and talk

New text from Curtis:
Don’t do it man, Tina is yesterday’s news. You’ve got a new girlfriend now

New text from Mark:
Um, ttyl

Later that day…

New text from Liz:
Hey, did I just c u at the coffee shop with some girl?

New text from Mark:
Um, yeah

New text from Liz:
Um, yeah!?

```
girl = raw_input("Who is she?")
```

New text from Mark:
girl = "My ex"

New text from Liz:
ur ex?!

```
for deep_breath in range(10):
  print “Take”, deep_breath
```

New text from Mark:
Can I text you later?

New text from Liz:
Sure, after u run this on ur computer:

```
f = open('just_my_thoughts.txt', 'w')
while True:
  f.write("u better not break my heart")
```
